

Monterey YWBA Sets Harvest Hop

MONTEREY, Nov. 19— The Monterey YWBA basketball team's benefit Harvest Dance will be held this Saturday evening in the Japanese Association hall with Jimmy Tolagson's orchestra furnishing the music. According to Fumiko Owashi, Tolagson was formerly a vocalist with Don Allen's and Phil Harris' orchestras, and at the present is making appearances with his band in local night clubs.

Tolagson will also offer vocal renditions. Narae Tani is listed as the mistress of ceremonies, and a hula dance is in the offing during the intermission.

The music is scheduled to start the dance at 9:00 p.m. and continue until 2:00 a.m.

Light refreshments are to be served, it was stated.
